- On 1 October 1958 the headquarters of the Jordanian Criminal Investigation Division (CID) received a confidential letter from the office of Chief of Staff Habis Majalli stating that agents of the ex-Grand Mufti of Jerusalem Haj Amin Husayni at Ayn Hawsh Refugee Camp in Lebanon were recruiting Palestinians for training to effect a revolt on the West Bank of Jordan and arms had already been infiltrated into Jordan. The leader of the training was Fawzi Qutub, Husayni's right-hand man for unconventional warfare during the period of the British Mandate in Palestine. Qutub was with Husayni in Germany during World War II and was trained by the Germans.
- The letter requested CID to check incoming traffic carefully and make an attempt to locate arms caches.
